Sanctuaire brings you seven off-the-beaten-path treasures in Italy whose owners have retained us to bring them to your attention. These properties are finer and a bit more expensive than those offered to the market at large, and are rented in their entirety to one family or small group – for the complete privacy that a truly special occasion deserves.

We have personally visited each of them and have close, ongoing relationships with their owners. They have entrusted us to accept a limited number of rentals when they are not themselves in residence.

If you wish, we can arrange a telephone introduction for you with the property's owners, who can tell you about the special offerings that only local residents would know. These touches, along with the luxury of having a villa (or castle or borgo) entirely to yourselves, are what makes Sanctuaire's Italy unique.

Call us for more information, or to hear about our personal experiences at these extraordinary properties in Sanctuaire's Italy.
